

ABOUT THE LIBRARY

The law college is having a well-equipped library with sufficient volumes of Journals and Periodicals. At present the library has 15,000 books. Every year the library updates textbooks & reference books required for each subject. Book bank for SC/ST students is also available. Access to Computer & Internet is provided. It plays vital role in the administration of justice. ‘As court of law is temple of justice, law library is temple of knowledge’ and as such, library service is playing and has to play an effective and efficient role in the legal profession

- The college library has a rich collection of around 13,000 Books, Journals, Legal and General Magazines, Commission Reports, Halsbury laws of England, Legal Dictionaries and General Books.
- Book bank for SC/ST Students is also available.
- All the faculties and students through INFLIBNET- NLIST program provides access to a number of e- books and e- journals relating to the law.
- Statistical records of ‘Students Visit to Library’ as well as ‘Issue of the Books’ are maintained in the Library. A gate register is maintained for the Reader’s whoever enters the library. The practice of withdrawing books lent to the students before the semester examinations is followed by almost all institutions, extensions of circulation service to the student till last day of their examination is a benefit provided to the student community at the crucial hour of examination.