

ONE DAY NATIONAL SEMINAR ON IPR

Prof P.M Chikkaboraiah Memorial One Day National Seminar on “Emerging Trends in Intellectual Property Rights: A Global Perspective” was organized on 3rd November 2018. The programme was inaugurated by Hon’ble justice Narayana Swamy, Senior Judge, high Court of Karnataka. In his speech he emphasized on the importance of IPR and its awareness to law students as well as common people. He expressed the necessity of protection of IPR.

Dr. Bheemesh, Senior Advisor, ALMT Legal Advocate & Solicitor, Bangalore delivered a Keynote address. He expressed the concern on the benefits to owners, inventors, proprietors as well as interest and wellbeing of common man in the society. He emphasized on the importance of legal knowledge on IPR for practicing advocates.

Sri Gundappagowda, President, VV Sangha® delivering presidential speech expressed concern on the importance of education in society and the role of students in present era.

Vote of thanks was proposed by the coordinator Sri H.S Shivakumar. The programme continued with the Technical and parallel sessions.

