

ONE DAY STATE LEVEL WORKSHOP FOR STUDENTS

One Day State Level Workshop for Students on “Role of Students in Prevention of Corruption in India was celebrated on 17th Nov 2018. Hon’ble Justice Santhosh Hegde, Former Supreme Court Judge and Former Lokayuktha inaugurated the occasion and spoke on corruption in India. He pointed out that corruption is present in various government departments and suggested the young minds to prevent it. The initiative should be taken by every individual.

Dr. Bhamy Shenoy, Alumni IIT, Founder of MGP spoke and said that corruption is a global phenomenon and it is omnipotent. Hence, it is the duty of the student to prevent the corruption from the grass root level. It is the duty to question the authority where the corruption happens.

Sri Gendappagowda, President, VV Sangha® delivering presidential speech said that Gandhiji always supported for truth and justice. He was always against corruption.

Vote of thanks was proposed by the coordinator Smt Deepu.P

Students from various colleges presented paper on the Role of Students in Prevention of Corruption in India. The paper presentation round was judged by Sri R.D Kumar, Advocate, Mysuru and Sri Raghu B.T, Asst. Professor, VVFGC.

