

A Report on Sarvodaya Mela

On 11th Feb 2020 Sarvodaya Mela was organized at Shri Sumbramanyeshwara Kalyana Mantap, Shrirangapatna. The programme was presided over by Shri B.G.Shivaraj, Trustee Kasturaba Gandhi National Foundation. Speaking in this occasion, he paid a tribute to Mahatma and termed him a universal legendary personality, who had swayed the entire world through his peaceful agitation during the freedom struggle. Gandhiji, who is fondly called as 'Bapu' by millions of his followers, always believed in empowerment of last man in society.

Shri B.G.Shivaraj speaking in this occasion said, Gandhiji strongly propagated equality and became a voice for voiceless. He strove hard to remove untouchability and caste system by visiting places of the oppressed classes. Bapu led a simple living throughout his life and lived for others. His simplicity and yearn for truth was worth emulating, he said.

Shri Gundappa Gowda, Hon'ble president of Vidyavardhaka Sangha, Mysuru. Deepu.P, Principal, Vidyavardhaka Law College, Mysuru, Prof.K.B.Vasudeva, Director of Legal Studies, Vidyavardhaka Law College, teaching, non-teaching staff and students were present in the function.
